Lalika: a luxurious cornucopia of exotic designs

Another show-stopping collection from the Harlequin Design Studio, Lalika, will be launched at Decorex and Focus in September 2009.

An evocative fusion of Persian and Indian influences, Lalika offers a selection of striking and exotic designs. It comprises three vibrant floral prints, a glorious printed silk damask and two lavishly embroidered weaves, one a flowing ogee motif and the other an intricate paisley panel.

Lalika's richly patterned fabrics are complemented by a classic range of decorative wallpapers, encompassing bold statement designs including damasks, broad stripes lavish flowing trails and a versatile strié plain.

The collection enjoys an appropriately opulent palette of colours, ranging from restrained, cool tones to vibrant jewel shades, which are subtly embellished with burnished metallics.

Lalika constitutes a joyful celebration of pattern and colour and its vivacious yet accessible designs will bring flair and panache to any living space.

Note to editors: All Harlequin wallpapers are responsibly manufactured in the UK with respect for the environment: they are printed using ethically sourced raw materials on paper from sustainable European forests.
